

Policy on Multiculturalism

Policy on Multiculturalism

St. Finian's is a multicultural and multidenominational school. We welcome applications for places from all students, regardless of gender, race, academic ability or cultural or religious background, who apply for enrolment to the school and who qualify for admission under the admissions policy as agreed by the Board of Management and the school Patron.